DRAFT RESOLUTION #4B-19-03XX
Supporting the Capital City Public Charter School
Edible Forest Garden
Adopted April 22, 2019

Advisory Neighborhood Commission 4B (hereinafter ANC 4B or the Commission) takes note of the following:

- Capital City Public Charter School (hereinafter Cap City) has been located within the boundaries of ANC4B06 (hereinafter the SMD) since 2012; and
- Cap City is seeking to establish an Edible Forest Garden with funding through the US Forest Service Chesapeake Bay Program in collaboration with the DC Department on Transportation (DDOT) Urban Forestry Administration (UFA) and Forested, LLC, within the boundaries of the SMD on and along their property line;
- Cap City's School Garden Coordinator is planning the planting and maintenance with students and adult community members, including teachers, staff, parents, neighbors and Master Gardeners;
- The main implementation is proposed to commence at the start of the beginning of April 2019 with additional planting to commence this fall and ongoing with seasonal maintenance performed throughout the year;
- Some planted foods will take years to be harvested but other can be harvested immediately such as herbs and berries can be harvested as soon as 2020;
- The Edible Forest will also be used for cooking classes and events

RESOLVED:

ANC Supports

Advisory Neighborhood Commission 4B06 has not received any opposition from its residents regarding Cap City's application for an Edible Forest Garden.
